	Improving Efficiencies, Optimising Resources
	Governance and Economics coming together to deliver is the core tenet of ModiNomics. There is no disagreement on the fact that economy needs to get into a much higher gear to achieve the goal of $5 trillion economy by 2024, target set forth by the Prime Minister. Our last conference discussed and recommended what needs to be done on the economic front. While a lot of action is fiscal headroom and monetary policy related, one key recommendation is that Incremental Capital to Output Ratio (ICOR) needs to improve drastically. This is squarely the role of the Government. Most discussions tend to veer around reforms that are either hobby horses or too prickly to be delivered. Given this, our two panels on State of Governance examine a set of issues that may yield more implementable solutions resulting in more efficient use of capital.
1030-1145	Plenary Panel I
	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. What structural changes and reforms government needs to bring about to improve efficiency of expenditure and capital deployed?</li> <li>2. Governance in most areas is a big challenge resulting in huge inefficiencies. How can technology be deployed in a way to disrupt status quo, e.g., digital payments, digital health and digital agriculture?</li> <li>3. To what extent principles of federalism be applied to data ownership, e.g., the recent demands by some states to have data localization at state level? Possible role of local bodies in data governance?</li> </ol>

	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. What structural changes and reforms government needs to bring about to improve efficiency of expenditure and capital deployed?</li> <li>2. Health services delivery seems to be showing improvements across the country due to better structured state schemes or central scheme like Ayushman Bharat. How can this be replicated in other sectors?</li> <li>3. How to improve velocity of money for MSMEs? Can all GST accepted MSME invoices be automatically credited by the government and the onus of payment recovery from the principal shift to the government?</li> </ol>

Mavalankar Hall

1400-1420	Jai Hind Keynote State of Public Finance Dr Rathin Roy, Part-time Member, Economic Advisory Council to the Prime Minister of India & Director, NIPFP
1420-1550	Power Panel: State of Public Finance Gross tax collections grew at just 8.4 per cent in 2018-19, when nominal GDP growth was 11.2 per cent. In 2019-20, after adjusting for the tax rate changes, gross tax collections growth has been budgeted at 15 per cent. This when the April-June quarter nominal GDP growth has slowed to a 15-year low of just under 8 per cent. Rathin Roy, Member, NIPFP, has cautioned of a “silent fiscal crisis”. A weak fiscal position has in the recent past constrained India’s sovereign ratings. In this regard, the medium-term fiscal policy will attract sharper scrutiny from a rating perspective. Even if the transfer of Rs. 1.7 lakh crore from the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) can help avoid any fiscal slippage relative to the central government’s own targets this year, can it reverse meaningfully the stalling of fiscal consolidation in recent years? The government has increasingly been relying on off-budget financing. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. What is the state of India’s public finances? How realistic are the budget’s estimates for tax collections?</li> <li>2. How much does the transfer of Rs. 1.7 lakh crore from the RBI help the centre’s fiscal position and is this sustainable source of non-tax revenue?</li> <li>3. Does the economy need a fiscal stimulus? If yes, what options are available to the government for financing it?</li> </ol>
